Membership Conditions and Responsibilities

In the interest of being a transparent and open organisation, a list of first and last names of members will be made public. By becoming a member, you agree to have this information made public. Your email address will be used as the method to contact you unless you specifically notify the secretary by email (secretary@wikimedia.org.au). You can do this after completing the signup process. In the event of your admission as a member, you agree to be bound by the rules of the association currently in force (association rules can be viewed here: <https://www.wikimedia.org.au/wiki/Rules>).

For the application to be constitutionally valid, the following process is used:

1. You fill out this form and return it to the secretary.
2. A member of the committee nominates you for membership.
3. Your nomination is accepted.
4. You are notified via email that your nomination has been accepted.
5. You pay your membership fees and become a member.
